

SALES ESSENTIALS

Kyoto

Designer: AD Miller

Founder: Adam Miller

Country: United States, Los Angeles

Education: Architecture and Design

Background: Trained in architecture and design in US and Denmark, over 10 years of experience working for award-winning architects in Los Angeles

Launched in 2021

Inspired by

- The pattern found in traditional raked japanese zen gardens
- The aim to bring a sense of tranquility into the home

Design

- Minimalist design
- Japanese aesthetics meet scandinavian simplicity
- Honest design (hand-cutted piles)
- Graphical expression
- Soft thread

Features

- 80% wool and 20% cotton
- Handmade loom rug
- Soft cut-pile surface
- Mothproof
- Hand tufted on cotton fabric

Ideal for

- Domestic spaces (living spaces and bedrooms)

Product text

With its minimalistic linear cut piles, the design provides a quiet sense of movement as the engraved lines travel in straight and diagonal motions. Evoking a feel of ripples in water, with an aim to bring the tranquility of these zen gardens into your space. The rug comes in different sizes, each with an individual design. Available in natural tones, Kyoto provides a complementing base for a furniture setting.

